Breakfast in hotel In the morning, visit the South Gate (with its huge statues depicting the churning of the ocean of milk), the ancient capital of Angkor Thom (12th century), Bayon temple (unique for its 54 towers decorated with over 200 smiling faces of Avolokitesvara), Baphuon recently re-opened after years of restoration), the Royal Enclosure, Phimeanakas, the Elephant Terrace and the Terrace of the Leper King. Have lunch at the local restaurant.

After lunch, visit the most famous of all the temples on plain of Angkor: Angkor Wat, the temple complex covers 81 hectares and is comparable in size to the Imperial Palace in Beijing. Its distinctive five towers are emblazoned on the Cambodia flag and the 12th century masterpiece is considered by art historians to be the prime example of classical Khmer art and architecture. Angkor Wat's five towers symbolize Meru's five peaks – the enclosed wall represents the mountains at the edge of the world and the surrounding moat, the ocean beyond. Day 3: Siem Reap Temple Tour

Breakfast box from hotel

In the morning, transfer to the archaeological site for Sunrise from Phnom Bakheng, one of two hills dominating the plain of Angkor, from where you will have a spectacular view of the Western Baray and Angkor Wat or sunrise at Angkor Wat (we recommend to bring a torch). Transfer to Banteay Srei temple (10TH century), regarded as the jewel in the crown of classical Khmer Art. Stop at a local village to visit families who are producing palm sugar. Continue to Banteay Samre, built in the 3rd quarter of the 12th century. It consists of a central temple with four wings preceded by a hall and accompanied by two libraries, the southern example remarkably well preserved. Two concentric walls enclose the ensemble. Visit local village of Pradak to see the simple way of local people produce natural palm sugar from palm juice (called Toek Thnot in Khmer).

In the afternoon, you continue your temple visit to Preah Khan, built by the king Jayavarman VII, Preah Khan is, like Ta Prohm, a place of towered enclosures and shoulder-hugging corridors. Unlike Ta Prohm, however, the temple of Preah Khan is in a reasonable state of preservation and ongoing restoration efforts should maintain and even improve this situation. Neak Pean, a fountain built in the middle of a pool (representing the paradisiacal Himalayan mountain-lake) and Ta Som. Overnight at hotel in Siem Reap.

Visit Angkor temples & houseboats

01 Sep 2017

We begin the visit watching the sunrise, followed by a spectacular guided tour of the entire temple complex with a guide with fantastic Spanish. The tour is adapted to the 'needs' of tourist house, that is, if you want to see more temples, visit markets or see the houseboats, both the guide and the driver adapt to any change. Throughout the tour we were provided with all the necessary water and refreshing wipes. Spanish tour highly recommended!

Second visit, still awesome. Facinating place, needs at least 2 days to walk around. Unfortunately May was very hot, but it did not deter tourists from visiting. Most people stay 2-3 days in Siam Reap to see the main attractions, adequate but you have to be selective about what you want to see. There is always something round the corner that attracts your attention. All in all an amazing experience, consider the work involved in building the place!
