Excellent guide and a very impressive day trip. Very well organised and a good insight of the past and present.

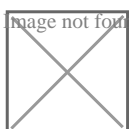

The past of Cambodia

24 May 2018

Absolutely harrowing experience that I recommend to anyone visiting Phnom Penh. Our guide was very sweet and knowledgeable. It was heartbreaking hearing her childhood stories and having to experience what she does every day living with the past of the Cambodian Genocide. She gave a lot of helpful information in the bus rides and during the tour. As a solo traveler, it was great to be in a small group, and make a few friends during the tour.

Awesome tour.

Awesome tour from the sobering visits to the Choeung Ek Genocidal Centre and the Tuol Sleng Genocide Museum then onto a great lunch, market place tour and then across the river to a bit of village life. A worthwhile day

Beautiful city with sorrowful past

27 Oct 2017

I would recommend this tour but be prepared for the history of this situation. The pictures and the sights depict the actual history. The guide was extremely knowledgeable and professional and was sensitive to the travelers and the history of this tour.
