Itineraries

Day 1: Panorama Cruise

In the morning we pick you up at your hotel (district 1 and parts of district 3) in Saigon and take you to Cai Be (approx. two hours drive). You board the wooden cruise boat around noon. After a refreshing welcome drink we show you our on-board facilities and your cosy cabin. As lunch is served, the boat starts cruising. Sit back and watch the fantastic scenery and the daily life of the Mekong people.
In the afternoon you can disembark for a guided tour to Xeo Qyut. In the province of Dong Thap lays the forest of Xeo Quit. Here, in the middle of the dense forest area was a former headquarters of the Provincial Party Committee during the Vietnam war.
After Xeo Qyut you will explore Sa Dec, a small, sleepy town in the Dong Thap province and it was the original setting of the autobiographical novel “The Lover” by Marguerite Duras. This romantic and charming little town still isn’t very touristy and a true hidden gem in the Mekong delta.
Get back on board and enjoy a drink at the bar or relax on deck as the sun sets over the magnificent water landscape. The boat will anchor for the night. The day ends with a delicious on-board dinner.

Once the boat resumes its journey, you travel through small channels towards Can Tho (or Cai Be). Hammer tour

30 Dec 2018

Hammer Tour, the ship really looks like the pictures and the cabins are awesome. We were able to sleep very well, seeing the village was awesome and we had plenty of time to just sit outside on the boat and enjoy the ride and surroundings. Highly recommended (the ferry to Phu Quoc was not so great here we would take the plane next time but from Saigon)

We love this tour so much. Excellent value for money. Some really fascinating sights. Loved the sampan trip too, kinda wish it was longer. Lunch was very good as well. A few opportunities to buy souvenirs and none of that nonsense of forcing them on you, was pretty chill! Would definitely do it again!
