We visited the Mekong Delta Tour with its current name Ho Chi Minh City

18 Jul 2017

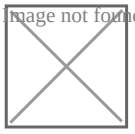

The previous day, we did the tour with Ho Chi Min tunnels and Ben Dinh tunnels together with the tourist group. We started the tour at 8:00 am on a tour that lasted about 2 hours. The tour included Cai Be Floating Market and Tan Phong Island and 3 other small island. One of these islands was an unicorn island. We drank the pollen tea, which was served to us here. Another island was an island where snakes and wild animals were displayed in cages. The most interesting was the natural way and a very difficult process to make coconut sugar. We studied the whole construction of Indian sugar. Afterwards, we continued our tour through a natural park with a buda. We got on the carriages. There was also a restaurant in the park. A nice meal was included in the tour. The lonely meal tour was also an extra and we were not satisfied with our choice. So if you don't want to be hungry, you should make your choice carefully.

Excellent!

Great trip with a great travel guide. We got to ride along the river in a typical vietnamese boat. We visited a honey farm, coconut farm, a meal in a village and so on. I really recommend this trip. It's worth all the money

i love it

Private Mekong River Cruise

25 May 2017

We were lucky enough to have a private Mekong tour - four in the car and on the boat (driver + guide + my friend and myself). Highly recommended and a highlight on our trip to Vietnam! From the boat there was a lot to see, in between we went for a ride on a bike (slightly exhausting at the quite high temperatures), ate fresh tropical fruits and watched the production of popcorn (rice).
